1. Summary

The CMA shooting sport requires some funding in order to sustain the promotion of competitions and the backbone activities such as leading, running and enhancing the sport. Membership fees can significantly contribute to that, allowing the mid- and long-term support of the sport.

For the first 1.5 years after the founders day, all memberships have been free of charge. We will now introduce a membership concept including a modest fee. However, the fees will be used in such a way, that members will directly benefit.

In a first step, the scope is memberships of individual competitors, i.e. natural persons. In later releases, some form clubs or institutional memberships may be defined.

The fees will be used in two ways:

- 1) to support the backbone and operation of CMA and
- 2) to foster selected competitions in the countries of the members

In this way, local CMA organizations, promoters and members can benefit from a strong local membership base and the concerned members can enjoy attractive competitions.

2. Competitor Membership

A shooter can register on the website to get a CMA number. Additionally he or she will need a valid membership and a valid skills test in order to participate in CMA competitions. The valid membership and skills test together constitute the shooters license.

2.2. Three Year Membership

The parameters are analogous to the 1-year membership except the duration, of course.

2.3. Lifetime Membership

A member can be awarded a lifetime membership by CMA for extraordinary merits in the promotion of the sport. It is comparable to a honorary membership and has no expiration date. The requirements concerning the shooters license and renewal remain in place.
